

RE: Voted best of Prescott Valley... this bistro serves Heaven in every bite

Jess,

Imagine a unique restaurant with a sophisticated, intimate atmosphere designed in rich colors and low lighting. Once seated, you are handed a menu the size of a small shopping catalog, offering an expansive array of culinary choices across a few traditional Asian cuisines. Your courteous server asks if you'd like a beverage and gives you a respectful amount of time so that you can take in the whole menu.

After placing your order, you have time to begin a pleasant conversation as you wait for your entrees but do not wait long until your dishes are brought out. The wait staff's impeccable timing ensures you never feel rushed, and your first bite is a testament to the quality of service. With your first bite, your eyes close, embracing the delicious flavors and pleasing textures. It's a little slice of heaven. This atmosphere provides quality time with family, friends, and partners. Dining out, this will be your experience with W&Z Sushi and Asian Bistro:

- Your food is visually appealing, and the first bite brings happiness to your taste buds
- Not only do they have the two traditional styles of sushi, but the menu also offers well-loved Korean and Chinese entrees
- The restaurant's dining room has a great, low-lit, intimate atmosphere
- The wait time for your order is decent, and the timing of the wait staff is impeccable
- The entrees are visual art, and the flavors are true to their beauty

Asian cuisine may not be your favorite, but if you try it out, you'll find that W&Z Sushi and Asian Bistro also serve spicy dishes that appeal to people who like a bit of heat in their cuisine. So, if you go out with me today, your tastebuds will thank you, and you'll want to revisit with me frequently. To sweeten the deal, I'll take care of the bill, and we'll order several items from the menu to sample to ensure you find something to delight your palette. Call me, and let's go out to W&Z Asian Bistro, enjoy a great conversation, and eat well.

Yours truly,
Kate
